Animal Welfare Act 2002

Animal Welfare (Scientific Purposes) Regulations 2003

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Animal Welfare (Scientific Purposes) Regulations 2003.

2. “Scientific use code” prescribed (s. 5)

The latest edition of the “Australian code of practice for the care and use of animals for scientific purposes” (including any amendments) published from time to time by, or on behalf of, the National Health and Medical Research Council is prescribed as the “scientific use code” for the purposes of that definition in section 5(1) of the Act.

3. Activities constituting “scientific purposes” prescribed (s. 5)

The use of an animal to demonstrate a product or a technique is a prescribed activity for the purposes of paragraph (d) of the definition of “scientific purposes” in section 5(1) of the Act.

Part 2 — Licensing the use or supply of animals for scientific purposes

4. Application for licence (s. 8)

- (1) An application for the issue or renewal of a licence is to be —
 - (a) made in writing using Form 1;
 - (b) made by the person or scientific establishment responsible; and
 - (c) lodged with the Department.
- (2) An application for the issue or renewal of a licence is to be accompanied by —
 - (a) any further information (if any) required to complete Form 1; and
 - (b) the prescribed fee set out in Schedule 2 for the number of years that the licence is to be issued or renewed.

5. Prescribed matters to be considered by the Minister (s. 9)

When considering an application for the issue or renewal of a licence, in addition to the matters set out in the Act, the Minister is to have regard to the following matters, prescribed for the purposes of section 9(2)(e) of the Act —

- (a) the information supplied on the application form;
- (b) the applicant's access to an animal ethics committee that complies with the scientific use code.

6. Licence conditions (s. 11)

In addition to the conditions set out in the Act, a licence to use animals for scientific purposes is subject to the following conditions —

- (a) the licensee is to provide the chief executive officer of the Department with an annual statement from the relevant animal ethics committee indicating compliance with the scientific use code for that year;

- (b) the licensee is to provide the chief executive officer of the Department with such relevant details in relation to the licence (including details of the animals used or supplied), as are requested by the chief executive officer of the Department from time to time;
- (c) the licensee is to comply with such other conditions imposed by the Minister as are set out in, or provided to the licensee with, the licence.

Part 3 — Miscellaneous

7. Forms

- (1) The forms in Schedule 1 are prescribed in relation to the matters specified in the forms.
- (2) Subject to section 74 of the Interpretation Act 1984, if a form is prescribed in relation to a matter, the matter is to be done, effected or set out in that form.

8. Fees

The fees set out in Schedule 2 are payable in respect of the matters set out in that Schedule.
