ASAV President Welcome

It is my privilege to welcome you to the 47th annual ASAV conference to be held at the The Star, Broadbeach on the Gold Coast from the 9-12 August 2021.

The theme this year is “Don’t panic! The practitioners guide to the emergency galaxy”. The conference will be directed at the nuts and bolts of emergency medicine and surgery for the practitioner in general practice.

Our line-up of top-shelf Australian speakers ensures that if you are a small animal practitioner in Australia this is one conference definitely not to miss.

The ASAV conference is not just about quality continuing education for the small animal practitioner.

There are many great opportunities to catch up with old colleagues and make new friends. The conference has a schedule of social events throughout the week that will accompany the lecture program; the Industry networking drinks in the wonderful trade display, the ever popular New Graduate Dinner and of course the Gala dinner and Awards night.

With 2020 being a write-off from a physical conferencing perspective, the ASAV is determined to make every presentation in 2021 a winner.

Make sure you reserve these dates in your calendar and register now to attend this conference in August.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Dr Alistair Webb, ASAV President

Top 5 Reasons To Come To The Conference

Up to 5 full days of continuing education sessions and workshops expertly curated by our education committee to help you become more confident in emergency medicine and surgery.

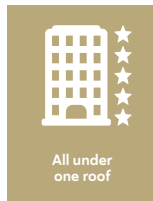

The opportunity to finally connect face to face with colleagues and industry after a difficult year.

A trade and industry show featuring many of your suppliers where you can find out about the latest products and innovations.

Up to 45 VetEd points.

All workshops, social events and accommodation will be under one roof.

Industry Exhibition

The exhibition will be the networking hub of the conference, giving delegates the opportunity for direct contact with sponsors and exhibitors alike. Refreshment breaks from Tuesday morning to Thursday afternoon will be held in the exhibition, including an exhibition welcome night on Monday evening and a happy hour on Tuesday evening.

All delegates receive complimentary access to the industry exhibition as well as automatic entry into the conference passport competition. Make the most of the opportunity to meet and mingle with companies from across Australia, keep up to date with the latest products and services whilst going in the draw to win a variety of prizes.

Getting There / Staying There

The appeal of holding our conference on the Gold Coast is first and foremost the easily accessible coastal location, which brings with it a relaxing holiday atmosphere with an abundance of activities.

Located in Broadbeach, The Star Gold Coast is just half an hour from the Gold Coast Airport at Coolangatta, and a 90-minute drive from Brisbane. Accessed by two major airports, the Gold Coast is well positioned offering easy access, direct flights and economical airfares for delegates travelling from around Australia.

With seven of Australia's best theme parks, 40 championship golf courses, more than 600 restaurants and cafes, over 70 kilometres of pristine coastline (only 300 meters away) and an abundance of natural and cultural wonders, the Gold Coast has an almost limitless range of possibilities for creating a memorable conference experience for both delegates and their families.

However, with this years conference venue you won't even have to go off site. With its luxurious accommodation and spa, iconic bars, restaurants and entertainment precincts; what better place to escape an Australian winter!

Visit one of the following sites for further details on what your destination and conference venue has to offer:

Keynote Speakers

Rob Webster

Rob graduated from The University of Queensland in 2000, went into emergency medicine, and never left. He was a founding partner of the Animal Emergency Service in 2005, then commenced residency training in emergency and critical care under the supervision of Professor Steve Haskins attaining FANZCVS qualifications in 2014.

Rob works with multiple business partners to develop Animal Emergency Service into an organisation which helps veterinary professionals fulfill their dreams.

As well as veterinary business, Rob continues to work as an emergency veterinarian, supervises a resident training program in emergency and critical care, participates in collaborative research projects, and teaches EMCC to veterinarians and veterinary students across Australia.

Rob's dreams are to see tick paralysis eliminated as a cause of death of dogs and cats in Australia, and for Animal Emergency Service to be the place emergency vets come to save the sickest pets and build the future of emergency medicine and critical care.

Ellie Leister

Ellie graduated from the University of Sydney in 2004, she worked in mixed practice before travelling the world during her early veterinary career. Returning to Australia and joining Veterinary Specialist Services in 2012. A short encounter with Professor Steve Haskins inspired her to complete a residency training program (2015-2017) and achieved Fellowship of the Australian and New Zealand College of Veterinary Scientists (FANZCVS) by examination in 2019. Dr Leister became part owner of Brisbane's Pet ICU in 2018, which is now her primary focus, along with clinical research and continuing to develop the 24/7 critical care team.

Terry King

Terry graduated from The University of Queensland in 1975, spent his first 20 years in general practice, predominately small animal, and then 7 years in The University of Queensland Veterinary Teaching Hospital as medical clinician and director. In 2002, Terry joined Veterinary Specialist Services as a partner and referral small animal clinician in internal medicine with an emphasis on emergency and critical care where he helped establish PICU (Pet Intensive Care Unit), a recognised leader in this field of veterinary practice. Presently notching up 45 years in general and referral practice, Terry enjoys the emergency side of veterinary practice and has a special interest in treating the critically ill. He is highly committed to family veterinary medicine and prolonging the human-animal bond.

Steven Epstein

Dr Steven Epstein attended University of California at Davis for his Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine. He then went on to complete an internship in anesthesiology at Kansas State University and then completed a three-year residency in veterinary emergency and critical care at UC Davis. Dr. Epstein is now a Professor of Clinical Small Animal Emergency and Critical Care and chief of that service at UC Davis as well as being the disaster response coordinator for the hospital. His research interests are in CPR, diagnostic testing in the emergency room, and antimicrobial resistance patterns.

Christopher Tan

Chris is a specialist in small animal surgery, based in Sydney, Australia, where he divides his time between clinical practice, post graduate education and research. He is the head of surgery at Sydney Veterinary Emergency and Specialists and is a board member of AOVET Asia Pacific, with his role focused on the delivery of quality education. Chris holds a conjoint lecturer position within the Faculty of Medicine, University of New South Wales, where he works with surgeons and medical researchers from a diversity of fields to combine the knowledge from both veterinary and human surgery to improve patient outcomes across species.

Christopher Lam

Dr Chris Lam graduated as a veterinarian from the University of Sydney in 2015. After graduation, he worked in small animal practice briefly before commencing a small animal rotating internship at the Ontario Veterinary College (OVC) in Canada.

After his internship, he started a mobile veterinary service in the High Western Arctic of Canada, where he also provided veterinary care for various international sled dog races.

Chris relocated back to Australia in 2018 where he locumed across various small animal practices in VIC/NSW. In 2019, he commenced a ACVIM cardiology clinical residency at Veterinary Specialist Services (VSS) in Brisbane/Gold Coast.

Mental Health First Aid Blended Online Learning

Monday 9 August 2021 | Time: 8:30am – 4:30pm

Venue: Coolangatta Rooms 1 - 3, The Star Gold Coast

Capacity: 30 delegates

Mental health first aid is the help provided to a person who is developing a mental health problem, or who is experiencing a mental health crisis. Like physical first aid, mental health first aid is given until the person receives professional help or until the crisis resolves.

The course includes:

Step 1: Complete the online e-learning module

This will take approximately 6-8 hours to complete, and you can start straight away using the MHFA online training manual available once your registration is confirmed.

Step 2: Attend the full day face to face Workshop

This component of the training has been tailor made for the veterinary profession and is facilitated by Rosie Overfield. Rosie is an accredited Master MHFA instructor, qualified counsellor and has worked in the veterinary industry for over 20 years.

The training is strictly limited to 30 participants and will be delivered in a full day workshop.

Important: you must complete the e-learning component at least one week prior to the workshop.

Cost:

AVA Full Member, Associate, New Graduate or Student - $450

Non-Member - $450

RECOVER Certification - Basic and Advanced Life Support for Veterinary Professionals

Friday 13 August 2021 | Time: 10:00am – 5:30pm

Venue: Coolangatta Rooms 1 - 3, The Star Gold Coast

Capacity: 20 delegates

Over 100 board-certified veterinary specialists from around the world collaborated to develop the Reassessment Campaign on Veterinary Resuscitation (RECOVER) evidence-based veterinary CPR guidelines. Two of RECOVER's leaders have designed these courses with the Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine for veterinarians, veterinary technicians, and students to learn the core veterinary CPR skills needed to increase survival rates in animals experiencing cardiopulmonary arrest.

We are offering the first face to face opportunity in Australia in 2 years which will allow attendees to complete RECOVER Basic Life Support (BLS) and Advanced Life Support (ALS) Certification. This will be achieved through online pre-learning (videos, assignments and quizzes) and a face to face practical workshop including minimal lecture material with a focus on hands-on team-based learning of what to do in code situations in practice.

This workshop will be facilitated by Trish Farry, Mark Haworth, Margie McEwen and Gary Fitzgerald.

Part One: Online (8.5 RACE points available for the online modules)

Step 1:

Register online via the ASAV Conference registration platform for the RECOVER Workshop (face to face) and you will receive a link and discount code (30% off) to then register directly with RECOVER for the online portion of the course.

Step 2:

Complete the online courses in RECOVER Basic Life Support and RECOVER Advanced Life Support.

Both online courses must be completed prior to attending the face to face workshop.

Cost: Online modules

$150 USD

The above price is in the US dollar, please allow for exchange rates when booking.

Part Two: Face to Face

Complete the face to face workshop at the ASAV Conference to become Certified to Perform RECOVER CPR.

Part one and part two must be purchased separately. You must complete the online modules before you can attend the workshop onsite at the conference.

Cost: Face to face workshop (onsite)

ASAV Full Member, Associate, New Graduate or Student - $550

AVA Full Member, Associate, New Graduate or Student - $650

Non-Member - $890

The above price is in Australian dollars and is inclusive of GST.
