

AVA Centenary Conference Series

Bringing the profession together

Join us this people's long weekend for the QLD AVA Centenary Conference

29-31 October | Pullman | Brisbane.

It's time - we all want and need to get together with our colleagues face-to-face.
It's been too long since we got together as a profession.

Be quick and save $200 with Early Bird registration
before it closes on 17 October!

Join us for a great CPD and social face-to-face event as part of the AVA Centenary Conference Series.

In addition to a very practical scientific program for vets and nurses, we have planned a wonderful social program, industry breakfasts and trade show showcasing what is new and innovative in the marketplace. Our scientific program will have 3 concurrent streams of world class speakers, speaking on a range of topics including:

- Stream 1: Small animal surgery, oncology, anaesthesia and neurology.
- Stream 2: Welfare, dental, climate change and workforce issues.
- Stream 3: Equine, Caring for patients with chronic conditions and nurse's stream.

We will also be offering RECOVER Basic Life Support and Advanced Life Support Certification workshop. Over 100 board-certified veterinary specialists from around the world collaborated to develop the Reassessment Campaign on Veterinary Resuscitation (RECOVER) evidence-based veterinary CPR guidelines. Part one of the workshop is online and must be completed prior to the conference.

So don't delay, register today.

On Saturday evening, join us for a cocktail event at Brisbane City Hall's, Hamilton Lounge & Bar to celebrate 100 years of AVA. Come and raise a glass to the profession, catch up with old friends and make some new ones. A ticket to the social event is included with full conference registration.
