

2024 NT Conference

24-25 February 2024 | Hilton Darwin NT

"When your gut doesn't work and your hormones screw up"

We are counting down to an unforgettable weekend of outstanding CPD, renewed friendships and unparalleled networking at the 2024 NT Conference!

Veterinarians from across the Northern Territory will gather in the vibrant city of Darwin as we take a deep-dive into "When your gut doesn't work and your hormones screw up".

The NT Vet Board will be there to ensure you stay at the forefront of industry developments and you can explore the latest products and services on offer at our Trade Exhibition – a showcase of new technology and exciting innovations.

Advance your knowledge and with practical insights and engaging presentations led by Specialists, Drs Luke Johnston and Johanna Premont, discussing topics such as:

- ◆ Chronic enteropathies of dogs and cats
- ◆ Ocular trauma
- ◆ What's new in diagnosis and treatment of hyperadrenocorticism
- ◆ Inpatient care enrichment, environment, nutrition, fluids, hygiene, barrier nursing
- ◆ And much more.

Conference Dinner | Sat 24 Feb, 7.30-10.30pm | Crocosaurus Cove, Darwin | $130 each

Join the us for a 2 course dinner (and drinks) at the Crocosaurus Cove, Darwin's most unique and iconic event venue, which is conveniently located in the heart of Darwin City. Get a true taste of Darwin by spending the evening surrounded by the iconic saltwater crocodiles and an array of native Top End reptiles.
